3 1. 2. 4 A

The musical notation is written on a single staff in treble clef with a common time signature (C). It begins with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The tempo is marked as 126 beats per minute. The notation includes a first ending bracket labeled '1.' and a second ending bracket labeled '2.'. Above the staff, there are large numbers '3', '1.', '2.', and '4' indicating measures or groups of measures. A hexagonal symbol containing the letter 'A' is positioned above the staff towards the right end. The notation consists of various note values, rests, and bar lines, with some measures containing whole notes and others containing rests or shorter note values.

The first system of musical notation for 'The Bird Song' is written on a single five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests. A double bar line appears after the fourth measure. The system ends with a repeat sign (two dots). The number '24' is written below the first measure.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals, with a measure number '45' written below the staff.
