notes:

1. From July – December 2021, the plan is to rehearse around 2 x dozen scores which feature big band, percussion and strings; which will bode well for 2022. In early 2022, a rehearsal will be set up in a suitable venue for the whole ensemble: DGK + SK to come together under one roof to play through the whole programme intended for the library music concerts.
2. The above tracks is a short list subject to minor alterations or additions. They were chosen because they feature brass, woodwind, strings and rhythm section – important ingredients for the the line up. However, where necessary, adjustments to the arrangements will be made: for example, strings included or parts that are within the capabilities of the players involved.
